

Guideline 2.3(D) of the Guidelines for Unaccredited Law School Rules provides:
The method of instruction at this law school for the Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree program is principally in physical classroom facilities.

REQUIRED DISCLOSURES

“The method of instruction at this law school for the Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree program is principally in physically classroom facilities.

“Students enrolled in the J.D. program at this law school who successfully complete the first year of law study must pass the First-Year Law Students’ Examination required by Business and Professions Code Sec. 6060(h) and Rule VIII of the Rules Regulating Admission to Practice Law in California as part of the requirements to qualify to take the California Bar Examination. A student who passes the First-Year Law Students’ Examination after first becoming eligible to take it will receive credit for all legal studies completed to the time the examination is passed. A student who does not pass the examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it must be promptly disqualified from the law school’s J.D. degree program. If the dismissed student subsequently passes the examination, the student is eligible for re-enrollment in this law school’s J.D. program, but will receive credit for only one year of legal study.

“Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to practice in jurisdictions other than California. A student intending to seek admission to practice law in a jurisdiction other than California should contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction for information regarding the legal education requirements in that jurisdiction for admission to the practice of law.”

This disclosure statement must be provided to each new student upon payment of an application fee, but before payment of a registration fee, and to each returning student, prior to payment of any fee for an academic term. This disclosure must be signed by the student, who must receive a copy of the signed statement.

I acknowledgement receipt of a copy of this disclosure statement on the date listed below.

Gayle Murphy
State Bar of California
180 Howard Street
San Francisco, CA

Dear Ms. Murphy:

The Law Library at the University of California Berkeley meets all of the ABA requirements for collections and facilities. It is open to the students of the East Bay Law School, who have access during the full 100 hours/week that the school is open. They would need only to show their law school identification to gain entrance.

Attached is a Disclosure Statement that states that the UC Berkeley library meets the State Bar of California standards.

Do not hesitate to call me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
